13. Eminent Domain. If the whole of the premises hereby demised shall be taken or condemned by any competent authority for any public use or purpose, then the term hereby granted shall cease on the day prior to the taking of possession by such authority, whichever first occurs, and rent hereunder shall be paid to and adjusted as of that day. Lessor agrees to give written notice of such taking to Lessee promptly. If a portion of said demised premises shall be condemned or taken and, as a result thereof, there shall be such a major change in the character of the premises as to prevent Lessee from using the same in substantially the same manner as theretofore used, then and in that event, the Lessee may either cancel and terminate this Lease as of the date when the part of the premises so taken or condemned shall be required for such public purpose, or said Lessee may continue to occupy the remaining portion provided, however, the Lessee shall give written notice to the Lessor, within fifteen (15) days after receipt of notice from Lessor of any taking or vesting of title of its election. 14. Waiver. No assent, express or implied, by the Lessor to any breach of any covenant or condition herein contained on the part of the Lessee to be performed or express or implied, or of failure by the Lessor to insist on the Lessee's prompt performance or observance of any such covenant or conditions, shall be deemed to be a waiver of or assent to any succeeding breach of the same or any other covenant or condition, and the Lessor may assert its rights and remedies hereunder without any prior or additional notice to the Lessee that it proposed to do so. The acceptance by the Lessor of rent or other payment hereunder or silence by the Lessor as to any breach shall not be construed as waiving any of the Lessor's rights hereunder unless such waiver is in writing. No payment by the Lessee or acceptance by the Lessor of a lesser amount than shall be due the Lessor from the Lessee shall be deemed to be anything but payment on account, and the acceptance by the Lessor of a check for a lesser amount with an endorsement or statement thereof or upon a letter accompanying said check shall not be deemed an accord and satisfaction, and the Lessor may accept said check without prejudice to recover the balance due or pursue any other remedy.

15. Severability. If any term of this Lease, or the application thereof to any person, entity, or circumstance, shall to any extent be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Lease, or the application of such term to persons, entities, or circumstances other than those as to which it is invalid or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each term of this Lease shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.
