

Meadowbrook Acres, LP
TENANT AT WILL AGREEMENT

This Agreement is made and entered into this ____ day of _____ 20____ by and between Meadowbrook Acres LP u/t/d dated October 12, 1999 and recorded with the Hampden District Registry of Deeds in Book 10959, Page 461, (hereinafter referred to as the “Landlord”) and _____ of _____ (hereinafter referred to as the “Tenant”)

1. Premises. A parcel of land known as _____ situated in a manufactured home community known as Meadowbrook Acres in Brimfield, Massachusetts, currently owned and operated by the Landlord together with all necessary temporary easements for use in common with Landlord and others entitled thereto for utilities and for ingress and egress over roads and ways in said manufactured home community (“Premises”).
2. Term. Subject to the terms, covenants, agreements and conditions herein, the Tenant shall have and hold the Premises for a rental period of one month, commencing on _____.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant may continue as a month to month Tenant until either (1) Tenant elects to terminate this Agreement by giving written notice to the other party before the first day of any rental period and shall be effective on the last day of that rental period, or thirty days after such notice has been given, whichever is longer or (2) Landlord terminates this Agreement in accordance with the provisions of Massachusetts General Laws, chapter 140, section 32J.

3. Fixed Rent. The fixed rent herein reserved to Landlord (hereinafter referred to as the Fixed Rent) shall be $_____ per month commencing on _____, payable by Tenant in advance on the first day of each month to Landlord without any prior demand therefore and without any deduction or set off except as may be provided herein.

Tenant hereby covenants to pay his proportionate share of any betterment assessments and expenses as well as all assessments and expenses connected with environmental and energy improvement which may be required as a result of the operation of the manufactured home community by local, state or federal law, regulation or ordinance. Tenant hereby covenants to pay his proportionate share of the costs of capital improvements to the community, including but not limited to sewer, water, gas or electrical system upgrades to the extent and in the manner permitted by law.

4. Additional Rent. The Tenant shall be responsible for the payment of $_____ per month as a license fee in accordance with Massachusetts General Laws Chapter 140, Section 32G. Said amount shall be paid to Landlord in advance on or before the first day of each month. In accordance with the provisions of said Chapter 140, Section 32G as amended, if the fee charged by the Town of Brimfield is changed, said fee will be increased or decreased accordingly.

5. Utilities. The Tenant shall be responsible for the payment of all utilities provided to the Premises or to any structure or improvement thereon exclusive of water.
6. Rules. The Tenant has been provided with a copy of the Rules of Meadowbrook Acres Manufactured Housing Community effective January 1, 2011. The Tenant agrees to abide by said Rules and/or any lawful amendments that may be made thereto once said Rules become effective.
7. Personal Property. The Tenant agrees and acknowledges that all buildings, structures, improvements, equipment, furniture, fixtures, and other items of personal property located upon the Premises during the term of this Agreement or any extension hereof, is to be at the sole risk and hazard of the Tenant, and that Landlord shall bear no responsibility for injury or damage to same unless such injury or damage is attributable to the intentional acts or negligence of the Landlord, its agents, or employees acting within the scope of their employment.
8. Title to Improvements. The Tenant acknowledges that Landlord is the owner of any structures and improvements now or hereafter erected upon the Premises, excepting the manufactured home, portable shed, portable garage or similar portable structure owned by the Tenant and placed on the Premises. All improvements which constitute the construction, erection or placing of any structure on the Premises must have the prior written approval of the Landlord which shall not be unreasonably withheld.

All permanently affixed structures placed on the Premises by the Tenant at Tenant's sole cost shall be owned by Tenant during the term hereof, but upon the expiration of the term, or any extension thereof, same shall belong to Landlord. Landlord alone shall be entitled to deduct all depreciation on Tenant's income tax returns for all such improvements.

Upon the termination of this Agreement, the Tenant shall surrender the Premises in good condition and repair, reasonable wear and tear excluded. Tenant shall leave the Premises in a safe condition by covering, enclosing or securing the Premises so as to prevent the Premises from becoming a hazard or nuisance to the general public. Tenant shall cap all utilities at the property line and properly locate same.

Notwithstanding the above, Tenant agrees to restore the Premises to its former condition if requested by Landlord.

9. Subordination. This Agreement shall be subject and subordinate to any and all such mortgages, now or at any time hereafter, which are a lien on the property of which the Premises is a part of and Tenant shall, when requested execute and deliver such written instruments as shall be necessary to show the subordination of this Agreement to said mortgages, provided that mortgagee by agreement in the mortgage or separate instrument contracts in substance not to disturb Tenant's occupancy so long as Tenant performs its obligations in this Agreement.

10. Landlord's Access. The Landlord shall have the right to come upon the premises from time to time to; excavate on adjoining land and to enter thereon for the purpose of shoring up the Premises or other adjoining premises; to exhibit the Premises for the purposes of sale, mortgage or reletting; to cure or prevent any default or breach of duty by the Tenant; and whenever the Landlord deems it necessary or desirable to do so for the immediate safety and welfare of the Premises or adjoining premises, provided that in each of the foregoing instances Landlord shall not unreasonably interfere with the Tenant's quiet enjoyment of the premises.
11. Indemnification. The Tenant agrees, at its sole cost and expense, to the extent permitted by law, to indemnify and hold Landlord harmless from any and all claims by or on behalf of any person, employee, corporation, or other entities arising from or in connection with: a) the construction or alteration of any building or the installation of any equipment, or the conduct or management of, and the payment for, any work or thing whatsoever done in about the Premises, by or on behalf of Tenant, occurring during the term of this Agreement, b) the condition of the Premises from and after the commencement of the term of this Agreement or earlier use, possession or occupancy thereof by Tenant, c) any breach or default on the part of Tenant in the performance of Tenant's obligations or covenants under this Agreement, d) any act, negligence, fault, omission or other misconduct of Tenant, or any of its officers, agents, servants, employees, contractors, customers or invitees in or about the Premises, occurring during the term of this Agreement, e) the operation of vehicles by Tenant, or any of its officers, agents, servants, employees, contractors, invitees or customers occurring during the term of this Agreement, f) any acts performed, at Tenant's request, by the Landlord or any of its officers, agents, servants, employees, contractors, or invitees occurring during the term of this Agreement, g) any claim or damage arising from Tenant's neglect in not removing snow and ice from the Premises or from the sidewalks or passageways adjacent to the Premises as provided in Section 8, h) any claim or damage arising out of the disposal, release or emission by the Tenant, its officers, agents, employees customers or invitees upon the Premises, whether accidental or not, of hazardous waste or hazardous material as may be defined from time to time by Federal, State and Local laws pertaining to hazardous waste, toxic substances, and air and water pollution, and any claims for injury or damage to any and all persons or property by any other cause of whatever nature unless caused by or due to the act, omission, fault negligence, or misconduct of the Landlord.
12. Quiet Enjoyment. The Tenant, upon paying the basic rent and all additional rent and other charges herein provided for, and performing all other terms of the Agreement, shall quietly have and enjoy the Premises during the term of this Agreement without hindrance or molestation by anyone claiming by or through the Landlord.
13. Eminent Domain. If the whole of the premises hereby demised shall be taken or condemned by any competent authority for any public use or purpose, then the term hereby granted shall cease on the day prior to the taking of possession by such authority, whichever first occurs, and rent hereunder shall be paid to and adjusted as of that day.

Landlord agrees to give written notice of such taking to Tenant promptly. If a portion of said demised premises shall be condemned or taken and, as a result thereof, there shall be such a major change in the character of the premises as to prevent Tenant from using the same in substantially the same manner as theretofore used, then and in that event, the Tenant may either cancel and terminate this Agreement as of the date when the part of the premises so taken or condemned shall be required for such public purpose, or said Tenant may continue to occupy the remaining portion provided, however, the Tenant shall give written notice to the Landlord, within fifteen(15) days after receipt of notice from Landlord of any taking or vesting of title of its election. In the event the Tenant shall remain in possession and occupation of the remaining portion, all the terms and conditions for this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect with respect to such remaining portion, except that the rent reserved to be paid hereunder shall be equitably adjusted according to the amount in value of such remaining space and this Agreement shall continue for the balance of its term, subject to the terms and conditions herein stated.

The award of damages or compensation for the premises taken, or the amount paid pursuant to private purchase in lieu thereof, whether such condemnation or sale be total or partial, shall belong to the Landlord, except that the Tenant shall be entitled to any and all compensation attributable to Tenant's improvements, and in case of a partial condemnation of the demised premises, Tenant shall be entitled to any compensation for damage sustained by Tenant as the result of any alterations, modifications, or repairs which may be reasonably required of the Tenant in order to place the remaining portion of the demised premises not so condemned, in a suitable condition for Tenant's further occupancy.

14. Waiver. No assent, express or implied, by the Landlord to any breach of any covenant or condition herein contained on the part of the Tenant to be performed or express or implied, or of failure by the Landlord to insist on the Tenant's prompt performance or observance of any such covenant or conditions, shall be deemed to be a waiver of or assent to any succeeding breach of the same or any other covenant or condition, and the Landlord may assert its rights and remedies hereunder without any prior or additional notice to the Tenant that it proposed to do so. The acceptance by the Landlord of rent or other payment hereunder or silence by the Landlord as to any breach shall not be construed as waiving any of the Landlord's rights hereunder unless such waiver is in writing.

No payment by the Tenant or acceptance by the Landlord of a lesser amount than shall be due the Landlord from the Tenant shall be deemed to be anything but payment on account, and the acceptance by the Landlord of a check for a lesser amount with an endorsement or statement thereof or upon a letter accompanying said check shall not be deemed an accord and satisfaction, and the Landlord may accept said check without prejudice to recover the balance due or pursue any other remedy.

15. Severability. If any term of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, entity, or circumstance, shall to any extent be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Agreement, or the application of such term to persons, entities, or circumstances other than those as to which it is invalid or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each term of this Agreement shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

16. Notices. Any notice which may be required or desired to be given hereunder from either of the parties to the other shall be in writing. Notices may be served personally upon the party to whom such notice is directed or may be mailed by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested. If directed to the Landlord, it shall be addressed to Landlord at 7D Taggart Drive, Nashua, NH 03060. If directed to the Tenant, it shall be addressed to _____ The above addresses may be changed by written notice conforming to the provisions of this Section.
17. No Warranties or Representations. The parties acknowledge that the Landlord has made no warranties, express or implied, other than those expressly set forth herein.
18. Agreement. This Agreement may not be modified except by an instrument in writing signed by both parties, except that the Rules noted in Clause 6 may be amended in accordance with the provisions of Massachusetts General Law Chapter 140. The Tenant and Landlord hereby declare that in entering into this Agreement the Tenant and Landlord relied solely upon the statements contained in this Agreement and fully understand that no agents or representatives of the Landlord or Tenant have authority to in any manner change, add to, or detract from the terms of this Agreement.
19. Successors and Assigns. All of the covenants, obligations, and agreements contained herein shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the heirs, successors, assigns, and legal representatives of the Landlord and the Tenant and of any person claiming by, through, or under either of them or their agents or attorneys.

In executing this Agreement, The Lannan Company is acting as General Partner and agent of the Landlord. The Tenant agrees that The Lannan Company shall not be personally liable to the Tenant in any way hereunder, including lack of authority to act as Landlord's agent, any and all such liability being hereby quitclaimed, waived and released by Tenant.

Landlord's liability hereunder shall be limited to the value of the leased premises owned by Landlord or its successors and assigns and shall not include the assets of the general or limited partners of the Landlord or their successors and assigns. No judgment shall be taken against any member, general partner, limited partner, subsidiary, officer, shareholder, director, employee, sister company or agent of Landlord or of any general partner of Landlord, and no writ of execution shall be levied against the assets of any member, partner, subsidiary, officer, shareholder, director, employee, sister company or agent of Landlord.

20. Choice of Law. This Agreement shall be construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Tenant At Will Agreement in duplicate the day and year first above written.
